

On the Fourier analysis of vector valued functions on compact groups

Abstract

In this talk, we establish the Fourier transform formula for vector valued functions on compact groups and the corresponding convolution theorem. In addition we introduce two fundamental Banach spaces as well as Fourier multipliers in connection with this Fourier transform and show some of their basic properties.