

Approximation of Functions with Cartoon-like Derivatives

Philipp Petersen

Abstract

I will show how well shearlets can approximate functions with cartoon-like derivatives. This extends well known approximation results for cartoon-like functions by shearlet systems. Before the talk I will shortly address a recent problem of variable band-width sampling, that was posed as "problem of the week" in our group some time ago.