

Projection on Measures

Jonas Kahn

We quickly introduce the framework of optimisation on measures spaces, and use it to state the problem of projecting on curves with different types of constraints. We illustrate the results of algorithms based either on convolution distances (with non-uniform Fourier transforms) or on  $W_2$  transportation distances (with Laguerre diagrams).